

Organ Mountains JUBILEE

Saturday, October 24, 9am–4pm

📍 Dripping Springs Natural Area, Las Cruces, NM

← Find this and other event updates here!

FREE, TICKETED EVENT!

FLAT BLAK

11AM-12PM

2:30-3:30PM

AMA COUNTRY MUSIC ARTIST

CHUCK WIMER

12:00-

2:30PM

★ GUIDED HIKES AND STROLLS!

SIGN UP AT THE WELCOME TABLE AT DRIPPING SPRINGS DURING THE EVENT TO ATTEND

9am-10:30am		Stop by to meet Elsie the Canulated Cow and experience a window into bovine digestion and the science of ranching (pop in program)
9:15am		What are wildlife waters? BLM wildlife biologists answer this question and introduce some of their common visitors (0 miles)
10am		Meet the characters of Dripping Springs' past on this living history hike to the Van Patten Mountain Camp (1.5 miles each way)
10:15am		Ever wonder what those old buildings are by the visitor center? Join this structure saunter to learn their many histories (≤ 0.25 miles)
10:30am		Learn about the native plants of the desert southwest on this garden stroll with the Native Plant Society (≤ 0.25 miles)
11am		Visit the ruins of Modoc Mill to unearth its mining history on this hike to Fillmore Canyon (1 mile each way) Shuttle to the start location
12pm		Experience the desert from a new perspective on this ethnobotany hike to La Cueva (0.6 miles one way, option to finish the trail & return by shuttle)
1pm		What rocks more than this view? Geology! Discover ours on this hike to the La Cueva rocks overlook (0.5 miles one way)

Hikes take place on rough, uneven terrain. Arrive in appropriate footwear/clothing for the weather with sun protection, snacks as needed, and plenty of water.

Find additional program information at the welcome table at Dripping Springs during the Jubilee!

Advance tickets available in Las Cruces at the BLM Las Cruces District Office, A.B. Cox Visitor Center, New Mexico Farm & Ranch Museum, and Visit Las Cruces Office.

Available in Alamogordo at JVH Media Connect at 2114 N. Scenic Avenue

Dripping Springs Natural Area will be closed to non-event traffic for the day.

Park at New Mexico Farm and Ranch Museum where the free shuttle will pick you up and bring you to the festivities!

PUBLIC LANDS AND OUTDOOR RECREATION PARTNERS, FOOD TRUCKS, KIDS FUN ZONE, AND MORE!

